

CUPERTINO SPORTS CENTER POLICIES

Reservations must be made personally by an individual—use of automated tools or services is not permitted.

Everyone entering must check in at the front desk with a membership card, or purchase a day use pass.

All members have a maximum playing time of 90 minutes/day for tennis and 60 minutes/day for all other courts.

Consecutive reservations under different names for the same match or for the same group of individuals are not permitted.

Those who do not follow CSC policies may lose the right to reserve for 30 days.

When your reservation is completed for the day,
you may request use of an open court.

Court reservations will be held for 15 minutes.
CSC does not guarantee a specific court.

Youth ages 13 to 15 can use the gym with a parent.
Those over the age of 16 can use the free weight area.
Youth under 18 must complete a fitness orientation with a CSC personal trainer.

Free fitness orientations are available for all members.

Shoes, shirts, and bottoms are required in all open areas.

CSC reserves the right to book for special events,
USTA, classes, camps, and private lessons.

Outside hoppers, baskets, ball machines, coaches,
or personal trainers are not permitted.

CSC may change or add to the policies at any time.
